Narrative:

Malibu/Lost Hills Sheriff's Station Detectives received information that identified a 1993 Ford Escort Station Wagon, License #3CDL667 that was possibly involved in numerous unsolved burglaries in the unincorporated area of Chatsworth. The Malibu/Lost Hills Station Burglary Apprehension Team followed a lead and located this vehicle, in the 7700 Block of Geyser Avenue, in the City of Reseda. The driver of the vehicle was later identified as one of three suspects responsible for a series of burglaries, forgeries and thefts in the area. Deputies located numerous pieces of stolen property in the suspect's vehicle, which was returned to the victims. A consent search of his residence revealed close to 100 pieces of suspected stolen items taken from seven vehicle burglaries in the Malibu/Lost Hills Station area, and possibly numerous more from Ventura County and the Los Angeles Police Departments jurisdictions. Further investigation revealed that the other two suspects residing at the location, were involved in this crime spree. It became apparent that they worked in concert to commit these burglaries. After securing the suspect's residence, animal control was called out to the location to take control of numerous cats, and dogs. Child Protective Services
